Dear Mishran Haque,

I am pleased to inform you that your academic performance in the Aerospace Engineering program this past year has earned you a place on the 2019-2020 Dean's List in the Faculty of Engineering and Architectural Science.

Congratulations! This special recognition of outstanding academic achievement reflects considerable effort and ability and should be a source of great personal satisfaction. We are so proud to have bright, creative students such as yourself as part of our Faculty.

I commend your accomplishment, and encourage you to continue your efforts to maintain this level of performance in your future studies.

Sincerely,
